

Notice of deregistration Australian People's Party

Notice under s 137(6A)(a) of the Commonwealth Electoral Act 1918

On 3 November 2021, Joanne Reid, Assistant Commissioner, a delegate of the Electoral Commission, deregistered Australian People's Party under s 137(6)(a) of the Commonwealth Electoral Act 1918.

Reason: s 137(1)(b) – a political party so registered, not being a Parliamentary party, has ceased to have at least 500 members.

Please refer to the Statement of reasons for further details relating to this decision.