Date received

Part 1—Donations received (subsection 304(2) of the Electoral Act)

The disclosure period for reporting donations received starts from the candidate’s individual commencement date and finishes 30 days after polling day (1 August 2016).

To determine the relevant commencement date refer to the information below.

Commencement date for candidates who have contested previous Federal Elections or By-elections:

Election	Polling Date	Commencement Date
Senate Election	21 August 2010	21 September 2010
General Election	7 September 2013	8 October 2013
Griffith by-election	8 February 2014	11 March 2014
WA Senate Election	5 April 2014	6 May 2014
Canning by-election	19 September 2015	20 October 2015
North Sydney by-election	5 December 2015	5 January 2016

Commencement date for candidates who have not contested a previous Federal Election:

Endorsed Candidate – from the date of endorsement/pre-selection by a political party

Independent Candidate – from the date candidacy was announced or candidate nominated (whichever was the earlier)

Candidate appointed to a casual Senate vacancy – from the date of appointment to the Senate

Part 1a: Total of donations received

This is the total value of all donations received, both above and below the disclosure threshold during the disclosure period.

Part 1b: Total number of donors

This is the total number of donors who made the donations included in the calculation of ‘total of donations received’ at Part 1a.

--

Part 1c: Details of donations received

Details of donations received during the disclosure period that were more than $13 200.

Under section 304 of the Electoral Act, for each donation received that was more than the disclosure threshold, the following details must be disclosed:

- full name and address* of the person or organisation from whom the donation was received; and
- date each donation was received; and
- value or amount of each donation.

* Name and address details

- If the donation was from an unincorporated association (other than a registered industrial organisation), the name of the association along with the name and address of each member of the executive committee are required.
- If the donation was from a trust or foundation, the name or description of the trust or foundation along with the names and addresses of the trustees are required.

 In this form donation is a gift within the meaning of Division 4 – Disclosure of donations, in Part XX of the Electoral Act.

PART 2 – Electoral Expenditure (subsection 309(2) of the Electoral Act)

Electoral expenditure must be reported if the purchased services and/or materials relate to the election and are used during the election period (i.e. commences on the day of the issue of the writ (16 May 2016) and concludes at the close of polling (2 July 2016). The physical expenditure can be incurred outside this time period.

NOTE:

All candidates must lodge a Candidate Return, which may be a ‘nil’ return if they have no electoral expenditure in relation to the election.

A member of a Senate Group should not complete this section of the Candidate Return. Any electoral expenditure must be included in a consolidated Senate Group Return.

For each category of electoral expenditure (listed below), disclose the total amount incurred on goods and services provided during the election period, even if payment for those goods and services (for example, production of an advertisement) was made outside of the election period.

1. Broadcasting advertisements relating to the election (including production costs)	$
2. Publishing advertisements (including production costs)	$
3. Displaying electoral advertisements at a place of entertainment such as a cinema (including production costs)	$
4. Production of campaign material that is required by section 328, 328A or 328B of the Electoral Act	$
5. Production and distribution of electoral matter that is addressed to particular persons or organisations	$
6. Carrying out opinion polling or other research relating to the election	$

*What do sections 328, 328A and 328B require?

Section 328 of the Act requires all electoral advertisements, handbills, pamphlets, posters, electoral video recordings or notices to include the name and address of the person who authorised the advertisement and, except in the case of newspapers and electoral video recordings, the name and place of business of the printer to appear at the end of the advertisement, handbill, pamphlet, poster or notice.

Section 328A of the Act imposes a requirement on persons who publish or cause, permit or authorise the publication of an electoral advertisement on the internet to include the name and address of the person who authorised the advertisement to appear at the end of the advertisement.

Section 328B imposes a requirement to include authorisation details at the top or bottom of the printed face of each how-to-vote card.

For more detailed information about these provisions please refer to the AEC’s Electoral Backgrounder on Electoral Advertising at www.aec.gov.au.
