

Suggestion 13

Graeme Wheeler

1 page

The federal electorate of Casey in Victoria could be named Barak in honour of the famous local traditional leader William Barak.

William Barak was the last chief of the Yarra Yarra tribe and an influential spokesman for Aboriginal social justice in Victoria, and a renowned Aboriginal artist.

Renaming the electorate Barak would be an important recognition of the history of the region and the first nations people who have lived here for Millennia.